

Air travel Safety

This Infographic makes it easier for readers to absorb chunks of information about air fatalities and help them to take safety measures before traveling.

Fatalities based on route

This density plot shows a detailed explanation of fatalities based on routes. It is clear that the Zahendan-Kerman route has more fatalities than other routes.

Fatalities by Year

This line chart Clearly explains the more accidents that happened between 1970 to 1990 which was due to lack of communication. Now we have improved our technologies to remove those barriers.

Top 10 airlines having more fatalities

The above pie chart explains that airlines like Aeroflot, Military – US air force, American airlines have more fatalities than others.

Top 10 fatalities based on aircraft

From the bar chart, it is evident that Douglas and Boeing B-747 have more fatalities than other aircraft types.

Country wise Fatalities Count

A darker shade indicates more fatalities count in the countries and a lighter shade has fewer fatalities. Countries like Russia, the USA, Africa has more fatalities than other countries.

Countries with more fatalities

This pie chart explains clearly that well-developed countries have more fatalities than other countries which is due to more air traffic. Proper scheduling is required.

